Dear Superintendent Brzeczek:

On behalf of our senior managers in the Executive Development Seminar, I thank you for your session of 2 November. I appreciate your sharing the principles that guide the staffing and operations of your department, and your concerns for the maintenance of order in a large metropolitan city. Your insight and candor provided an important dimension to the understanding of the forces at work in large urban areas worldwide. These insights will serve our managers, both as intelligence officers and responsible citizens.

Sincerely,

/s/ B. R. Inman
